In 1872 Japan possessed 96 merchant etcamers of an aggregate tonnage of 28,864 tons. They were without exception, vessels which had been condemned by their former foreign owners as unfit for further profitable use, were ill managed and neglected, and neverventured beyond 'he coast of Japan, and even their coasting voyaces were so insignieven their coasting voyages were so insigni-ficant that their cutries and clearances were not deemed worthy of the slightest mention in the Customs returns. in 1895 Japan pos-cessed 517 merchant steamers of the aggregate tonuage of 521,522 tons and the princi-pal company, the Nipron Yusen Kaisha, or National Mail Steamable Company, alone cossessed a feet of 57 ocean-going steamers,

Anyone entering the Anchor saloon during business hours, or in the evening, is immediately charmed by the handsome array of game birds teal duck, mallard, quail, grouse, etc., which decorates the bar. They are all stuffed as you will be, with rich, nourishing beer, cold and clear, and with the palatable visads of the lunch counter. The Scattle beer, fine wines and liquors are of the best quality and always fresh. Every Australia brings a large consignment and Mr. Cunningham uses every idea which his massive brain suggests, to please his patrons. The Anchor is now the most popular saloon in town. 1 and 3 King
